Steps-without-Pause

Schmoop's travelling buddy.

Ostavius Hrímspegill (Wood Elf)

Allegiance: Hrímspegill Grove (Mainly elves?)

Schmoop Connection:

The first one who noticed Schmoop wandering near the treeline, a curious creature speckling in the moon(s)/starlight during their weekly meditation.

The plasmoid failed to understand anything the people were saying to him until Ostavius spoke in Elvish to him.

The circle took Schmoop in and began to teach him their druidic ways of nature and survival, notably the majority of them are stars druids.

Schmoop Knowledge: Schmoop is aware he went missing - there was a scuffle and yelling in the night, but no trace or clues were found as to what happened.
