

Asteriux du'Clement

Asteriux du'Clement (Human Bard - plays a golden fiddle)

Background: esteemed wealthy musician who travels throughout the land

Famous Song: Dance of Western Sea

Schmoop Connection:

Schmoop in a tavern hearing a toe-tapping fiddle song bops and fluoresces to the music like a strange lava lamp. Cassiopeia's violin being the first instrument he heard significantly, he is drawn towards the rhythmic source. Encroaching from behind, Schmoop peaks up behind like a cobra in a basket and leans over Asteriux's shoulder still bopping along and re-shaping to be like a gelatinous cape on his back. Asteriux, noticing the weight turned to see Schmoop's false face with a blank smile staring at him, jumps in the air with an abrupt music cut and viciously shrieks, "blithering clinging puddle of chromatic dragon bile!".
