

Harald Thorbjörn

High keeper of Skyfather's Hall and a man some have described as looking like Oden's brother. He's physically unimposing, but he carries himself with a stature that belies his significance. Like all High Keepers he's accompanied by twin ravens who allow him to both commune with the gods and deliver messages to other halls and Stormward Sanctuaries throughout Eusia.

While the Open Halls of Thunder do not have a hierarchical structure or even direct affiliation with each other, due to Skyfather's Hall's significance Harald's opinions and actions have an outsized impact among the Thorist faithful.
