Runs-with-Starlight

Steps' father whom he doesn’t know all to well. He was enlisted as a scout, and died in the Sapphire War with the southern desert city-states, over the sapphirite that’s supposedly magically conductive. All Steps knows for sure is that he fought in the battle of Glass Winds where the desert armies used some sort of crystal mirrors to break the Eusian kingdom’s advance. Sadly his body was never found.
