

The Company

The Company is an organized crime syndicate operating out of [[Eusaria]]. They aim to expand their influence through any means necessary, and have their fingers in many pies. One particularly profitable venture is acting as a nexus of criminal organizations across the kingdom. If a group of criminals needs funds to purchase weapons, or buy off a politician, or anything else, The Company will bankroll them in exchange for a tithe of their earnings. Their interest rates are very high, and those who do not pay their due are known to meet brutal ends.
