

The Donner River

The mighty Donner river starts in the southern mountains of the Donnerwald and is both the largest supply of fresh water to the southern part of the continent as well as its primary trade route for shipping. Many traders have made their fortune on its banks in Oak Landing selling and trading goods and food arriving from the southern interior and timer and furs coming from the south.

Revision #1

Created 2026-07-23 07:19:51 UTC by Jorn

Updated 2026-07-23 07:24:29 UTC by Jorn